Last Time Out

◆ Ryan Cordeiro scored two goals including the game-winner with just over two minutes to go, as the UConn defeated Pittsburgh 4-3 Oct. 14 at Founders Field in Pittsburgh. With the win, the Huskies improved to 9-4-2 on the year and 7-1-1 in the BIG EAST, while the Panthers fell to 4-9-1 overall and 3-4-1 in the conference.

◆ In addition to Cordeiro's two goals, the junior forward tallied an assist, while Chukwudi Chijindu and Akeem Priestley each put up additional scores for UConn.

◆ Priestley scored the equalizer in the 74th minute against Indiana to give UConn the tie Friday, Sept. 1, before tallying a goal vs. Saint Louis on Sept. 3 ... After three games without a point, he found the back of the net against Sacred Heart with the game-winning goal.

White Remains Steady

◆ Sophomore O'Brian White scored in back-to-back games for the Huskies against Rutgers and Villanova, while earning an assist on UConn's goal at Indiana (Sept. 1) ... the 2005 BIG EAST Rookie of the Year did not score until the ninth game last season, but went on to lead the team in goals and assists.

◆ With two goals and an assist against Yale on Sept. 27, White moved into first place on the team in scoring, currently holding seven goals and five assists to his credit.

Scouting Marquette

◆ The Panthers come into Wednesday's game after losing their last 13 contests.

◆ The Golden Eagles are 1-13-1 overall and 0-9-0 in the BIG EAST, coming in at No. 8 at the bottom of the conference's Blue Division ... Marquette won its first game of the season to Loyola (Ill.), tied its second against Denver and has not been able to get back in the win column in 2006.

◆ Matt Blouin and Dan Addis have each scored two goals this season to lead the Eagles with four points apiece ... Matt Pyzdrowski has played in 12 games in goal this season, tallying 42 saves and 1.96 GAA after giving up 22 goals on the year.

Series History with the Golden Eagles

Stanley Ford and O'Brian White each scored two goals in the contest, while Chukwudi Chijindu and Steve Cenatiempol each added one ... Seven different UConn players tallied assists in the contest.

◆ The Husky defense, anchored by Willis Forko, Julius James and Karl Schilling limited the Golden Eagles to just three shots on the day, while helping keeper Adam Schuerman to his 31st shutout as a starting keeper and the team's seventh of the year.

◆ In the only other meeting between the two teams, the Huskies came away with a 4-2 victory on Nov. 3, 1991, in Storrs.

Tough Road Ahead

- ◆ As always, the Huskies are in the midst of one of the toughest schedules in the country. In addition to a grueling 11-game conference slate, UConn will take on seven opponents that participated in the 2005 NCAA Tournament, including seven-time national champion Indiana in the opening week of the season.
- ◆ According to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America's preseason poll, UConn will face four teams in the top 25, including conference opponents Notre Dame (No. 15) and St. John's (No. 17). They will also take on non-conference foes Indiana (No. 12) and Wake Forest (No. 16).

Huskies Slated to Finish Big in BIG EAST

- ◆ For the second consecutive season, UConn has been picked to finish atop the BIG EAST Blue Division.
- ◆ Red Division and conference tournament runner-up USF
- ◆ Julius James and O'Brian White were the lone Husky representatives on the Preseason All-BIG EAST Tournament Team. Julius earned Defensive Player of the Year and First Team honors last season, while White garnered Second Team accolades and the Rookie of the Year award.

James Named Prospect for Hermann Trophy

- ◆ Julius James has been named to the 2006 Missouri Athletic Club's Hermann Trophy Watch List for the second consecutive season. The complete list of 25, announced by the Missouri Athletic Club, was compiled by a panel of coaches from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).
- ◆ A list of 15 semifinalists will be announced in early November, with three finalists announced in late November. They will be invited to St. Louis on Saturday, Dec. 2, for the announcement of the winner at a press conference to be held in conjunction with the Men's College Cup.

Newcomers Tabbed Sixth In The Country

- ◆ The UConn men's soccer freshman class is ranked sixth in the nation, according to College Soccer News.
- ◆ Among the 11 newcomers, CSN also ranked freshmen defender Richard Kentish and keeper Matt Sangeloty among the country's top 100 recruits.

More in Morrone

- ◆ The Huskies had remarkable success within the friendly confines of Joseph J. Morrone stadium last season, as they posted a 12-0-2 home record on the year.
- ◆ That record also includes a 4-0-1 mark in the postseason. UConn outscored opponents 12-3 during that stretch, including a 7-0 margin during the BIG EAST Tournament.
- ◆ In addition to the BIG EAST Tournament games, the Huskies did not allow a postseason goal until the third round of the NCAA Tournament when they gave up a season-high three to Akron.
- ◆ For each of the last four years and seven of the last eight, UConn has averaged more than 2,000 fans per game. The Huskies have led the nation in total attendance five out of eight years.

Patches of Pride

- ◆ On Friday, Sept. 29, the champions will be honored at the annual Meet The Huskies Banquet sponsored by Ricoh. Following the banquet, celebrations will ensue at the Sept. 30 football game vs. Navy, the soccer match against WVU at 7:00 p.m. Saturday and a Sunday morning brunch.

UConn Led By Assistant Coach of the Year

- ◆ Following last season, Assistant Coach Paul McDonough was selected as the 2005 College Assistant Coach of the Year, by the NSCAA. He was eligible for the honor after being crowned the East Region Coach of the Year.
- ◆ In his three years at UConn, McDonough has assisted with all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the Husky soccer program, with an emphasis on the recruiting portion. Since arriving in Storrs in 2003, he has recruited some of the best high school talent.
- ◆ McDonough's recruiting classes have been ranked in the upper echelon in each of his seasons, including the sixth-place class this year.

Preseason Rankings

- ◆ The Huskies entered the 2006 season ranked in the top 10 of all four major polls.
- ◆ The National Soccer Coaches Association of America places UConn the highest with the No. 2 spot, while College Soccer News and SoccerTimes.com each ranked the team fourth.
- ◆ Soccer America is the only ranking body to list the Huskies outside the top five, as they currently hold on to the No. 8 spot.

Preseason Wrap-Up

- ◆ Freshman Mike Pezza scored the Huskies' lone goal of the preseason in UConn's 1-1 tie against Duke on Aug. 19. Ryan Cordeiro and O'Brian White assisted on the tally that put the Huskies up 1-0 early in the first half. The Blue Devils would tie up the ballgame in the 49th minute with a goal from Kyle Helton.
- ◆ Previous to that contest, UConn tallied scoreless ties vs. Hartwick and St. Peters.

Media Information

- ◆ WHUS Radio: UConn's campus radio station WHUS (91.7 FM) will broadcast nine of 10 home Husky men's soccer games during the regular season, as well as selected road contests, in 2005. WHUS' broadcasts can be heard live on the Internet at WHUS.org and will be linked to UConnHuskies.com.
- ◆ E-mail: To receive updated on UConn Soccer, e-mail Alissa Clendenen at alissa.clendenen@uconn.edu with the message "Men's Soccer E-mail" as the subject.
- ◆ Web: Please visit UConnHuskies.com for up-to-date stories, stats, schedules and results, and other UConn athletic department information.

Huskies On The Tube

- ◆ The Huskies will be featured twice on national television during the regular season.
- ◆ UConn will face St. John's on Sept. 14 at 8:00 p.m. as part of Fox Soccer Channel's Game of the Week series. Fox Soccer Channel reaches about 25 million households in the United States and the Caribbean as part of select cable packages.
- ◆ They will then take on Notre Dame at home on CSTV at 7:00 p.m. on Oct. 21.
- ◆ In between the pair of nationally-televised contests, UConn took on Providence on Cox Sports TV, broadcasted locally in Connecticut and Rhode Island to Cox Cable subscribers.
- ◆ The final rounds of the BIG EAST Tournament will also be broadcasted on CSTV, adding to UConn's potential national exposure.
